Terms & Conditions

1. Variety - the Children's Charity of Ireland are promoting our on-going fundraising campaign to raise money to supply iPads for Special Needs Assistances in national schools across the island of Ireland.
2. Even though you are making an application to Variety - the Children's Charity of Ireland for an iPad for your school, there is no guarantee that your application will be successful as we totally rely on funding for iPads through public donations to our charity.
3. The selection committee of Variety - the Children's Charity of Ireland considers all applications fairly and bases their final decision to award iPad to individual schools based on the strength of each application.
4. Successful applicants will receive an iPad donated by Variety - the Children's Charity of Ireland. Upon receipt each school will take complete ownership of their iPad and will be totally responsible for the maintenance, repairs and upkeep of their own device thereafter.
5. Variety - the Children's Charity of Ireland would like all applicants to help with the promotion of "Heart of Learning" campaign by promoting this on your social media pages. The more money we raise, the more children and schools we can help.
6. This only applies to schools that operate within the 32 counties on the Island of Ireland.
